Two Meetings...

Campus Stake Group Organization Sunday

BRIGHAM YOUNG University students will be organized into a stake of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints at two general meetings, 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. Sunday in Smith Auditorium.

James Adam B. Benson and Dr. D. Myle of the Council of Twelve Apostles will preside at the meetings. Remarks by the administrators and Church leaders have indicated that the boundaries will be drawn, riding times and places altered, and some ward and stake work presented at the meetings.

THE STAKE will include 12 wards and should total approximately the BYU enrollment. Students have been added to wards through a provision for return of membership records to their new stake with existing records for students in ing at home or married students who wish to remain in their present wards.

Each township in the church has reportedly been instructed to transfer membership records of all BYU students. Records of students who have been members of one of the campus branches have already been transferred.

BOUNDARIES of the 12 wards will be drawn along geographic lines except where uneven population groupings make this impractical. Meetings and activities of all wards are to be scheduled for campus facilities.

In announcing creation of the new stake, BYU President Ernest L. Wilkinson stressed that students will still be eligible for missions calls from their home wards through a provision for return of membership records at the request of the home bishop.

Late News Flashes

Solens Talk Out

WASHINGTON (AP)—Tax-cutting sentiment in Congress no more than a night chill Thursday from President Eisenhower's call for debt reduction first.

After hearing the President's State of the Union message, an lawmakers who had been talking of a tax cut were still tang of it. It remained, along with the farm problem, a major item for the session.

Grace Kelly's Heart Captured

MONTE CARLO, Monaco (AP)—Prince Renier of Monaco, only a short eligible bachelor, has captured the heart of Grace Kelly, one of Hollywood's most eligible stars.

Their engagement was announced Thursday—first through a live announcement here and then by Mrs. Kelly's parents, Mr. & Mrs. John B. Kelly in Philadelphia.

Budget Is Rakatos-like

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower and Thursday budget will be in balance this fiscal year and next. He decided, however, a tax cut would be justifiable only if it did not put the government into the red again.

Who Knows?

WASHINGTON (AP)—Frederick B. Lee Thursday showed investigating senators the two letters of resignation as head of the Civil Aeronautics Administration which he sent to President Eisenhower, but he said he had no way of knowing whether the chief executive saw both of them.

Bigger and Better...

Coeds Move Into New Halls

Brigham Young University coeds recently moved into two new Heritage Halls, which were completed in time for winter quarter housing. Six others will be needed for autumn quarter, 1956.

Each building houses 75 girls in 12 apartments. The older Halls house 60 girls in 10 apartments. Unlike the older Heritage Halls, each new building has a head resident apartment, music practice room, a sundeck instead of a living room on the third floor and enlarged kitchen area. Kitchens feature eye-level ovens, modern refrigerators, added storage space and broom closets.

All apartments in the two buildings are above ground. The older buildings have two basement apartments. Basements in the new buildings contain washing facilities, recreation rooms and practice rooms.

The entire project when completed will house an additional 750 girls. The original 16 buildings house 960 girls.

Contractors building the new Halls are the same firm that built the McKay Building, the Erving Science Center and are now constructing the new Joseph F. Smith Family Living Center.

Amendment Votes Not Counted Yet

Results of the recent election, on two amendments to the student-body constitution have not been tabulated yet because the Elections Committee is "diseased," it was reported by John Hunter, acting Elections Committee chairman.

When asked for an indication of the voting, he refused to release a tabulation on the votes already counted. "I cannot say what good it would do to release partial figures," he commented.

HE DID SAY that the voting was close enough that the results could go one way or the other. The acting chairman said that the committee was diseased because no meeting has been held this quarter. However, it was common knowledge two weeks before the Christmas holidays began that the election would be held.

Hunter and a few members of the Elections Committee had been counting the votes manually "whenever they got time" since the election.

THE ARCADIA, Calif. vote counter hinted that he would have complete tabulations ready by Friday. He was reminded that if the amendments pass, a special election would be necessitated in the near future.

The only reason it was not held was the voting might be close enough that change in one-fourth of the votes had to be waited against the constitution.

SINCE IT is extremely unlikely that more than half the students enrolled at Brigham Young University voted in the election, the only possible use the amendments would be a tie vote would be by negative ballot of more than one-fourth of the voters.

It could have been decided by the lack of a 75 percent turnout out of the electorate, but since the ballots were handed to voters during registration, this method of defeat was considered unlikely.

Cougarettes Plan Welcoming Dance For Friday Night

Students will be welcomed back to school Friday evening at dances in the Fieldhouse and Social Hall. Dancing will begin at 8:30 p.m.

Cougar decorations will carry out the theme of the affair. "Somebody Goodie" intermission entertainment will include informal song and dance numbers by members of Cougarettes who are sponsoring the dance.

The Y's Men band will play in the Fieldhouse and the Fred L. Caviness band in the Social Hall. Admission is 75 cents for couples and 50 cents for singles.

Deadline Nears For Payment Of Leadership Confab Money

One of the members of the presidency of Brigham Young University will speak to student leaders at the winter quarter leadership conference Monday night.

The speaker, who has not yet been chosen, will probably be either Pres. William Edwards or Pres. Harvey Taylor, according to Clair Earl, conference chairman.

Deadline for payment of the $375 registration fee has been extended through 4 p.m. Friday. Payment may be made from 1 to 4 p.m. in the student coordinators' office, Student Service Center, basement. Reservations for the banquet must be made by Friday night. Earl said.

Students will leave the Smith Building at 12:30 p.m. for Salt Lake City and will return to Provo by 10:30 p.m.

The day's program includes an address by a yet unnamed member of the General Authorities of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in the Salt Lake City tabernacle, two discussion meetings on student problems scheduled for the Temple grounds, assembly hall, a tour of the Temple grounds, and the evening banquet.

Young Announces Resignation As Election Committee Head

Kendall Young, Provo, resigned his position of Elections Committee chairman Wednesday. He assumed the office at the beginning of fall quarter.

HE SAID THAT he made a recommendation for a successor to the Executive Council.

In a statement to the University, he said that the cause of his resignation is a lack of time to spend with his family.

The retiring chairman said that he recommends an "election code" to define the powers of the committee and make provisions for "just what candidates can and can't do during campus election campaigning."

SUCH AN election code was proposed during fall quarter but apparently no further action has been taken.

Elections Committee is presently empowered to make and enforce campaign policy on campus, subject to review by the Executive Council.

YOUNG'S resignation from the key post was expected, assuming it is that chief had been aired before the Christmas holidays season.

John Hunter, Arcadia, Calif., was named acting chairman of the committee for the recent amendment elections.

Executive Council is expected to appoint Young's successor at an early date.

Former Student Reported Badly Ill

Albert Scosberg, a student at Brigham Young University last winter, Thursday was reported in critical condition in the Salt Lake City LDS Hospital. He is suffering from several diseases, and in need of several blood transfusions.

It was explained that donors may give blood at the Utah Valley Hospital, and Scosberg will receive one pint for every two pints thus donated.

CAMPUS PROGRESSION—New Heritage Halls which have been put into operation were completed during fall quarter. They are located just North of the 16 halls which were completed some years ago. Two of the new halls are now in use, with the other six scheduled for completion in time for autumn quarter, 1956. (Photo by Glenn Sherwood)

Bibler Prefers Blondes...

Louise Lush Replaces Freda in Strip

by Owen Jamison — Universe Staff Writer

WORD HAS JUST been received from Dick Bibler, co-ordinator of the popular Little Man on Campus cartoon which appears in the Brigham Young Universe, that the main female character a rather plump young lady for the name of Freda, has been replaced by a drowsy little doll with the intriguing name of Louise Lush.

Bibler forwarded portraits of the first of his chad characters, which will be published in the Universe in the near future.

THESE THREE will have Brigham Young University campus counterparts elected by the student body to be co-director at the annual Universe sponsored Bibler Bonnet sports dance which will be Jan. 20.

In addition to lovely Louise there is a rather repulsive appearing character with the unlikely name of Worthal, who is supposed to represent a general cross-section of the male population on campus.

THE "MANAGEMENT" segment of this labor-management team is a wicked-looking bony premed by the name of Prof. Snarf, a sharp-toothed slither who is every student's idea of the typical college professor.

Supervisor Needed

Anyone interested in serving as poster room supervisor for the winter quarter should contact Ken Clayton at the Universe office during the day, or call PE 3-5566, ext. 125 after 4 p.m.

No art experience is necessary, as the position requires: loading and unloading of poster room supplies and generally supervising poster room functions. Approximately one hour a day is required to fill the position, which must be filled immediately.

Knights Planning Winter Openhouse

Intercollegiate Knights National Service Fraternity will have its openhouse Jan. 11 at 7:30 p.m. in the South Bursar Hall.

All male students who are not first quarter freshmen are eligible for membership. The only requirement is a 1.55 grade average. Since membership is limited to a definite number, only 25 members will be considered.

Intercollegiate Knight members participate in lighting the "Y" during the winter and the "Y Ball," featuring at student-body activities, selling tickets and theater discussion cards, and encouraging student participation in pep activities.

IOC Meet Postponed

Inter-Organizational Council meeting has been postponed to Jan. 14, 7 p.m. in 370 Eyring Science Center. It was scheduled on Monday night but was cancelled because of Student Leadership Conference school that day.

Put them all together and you have three characters who have escaped their way into the hearts of college students all over the nation.

ELECTIONS OF BYU personalities to these positions will take place Jan. 18 Nominating

'Remember Ma' Cast Named; Part of Feline Remains Vacant

CAT FOR THE first play of winter quarter at Brigham Young University was announced by director Dr. Preston B. Glendahl. The comedy by John Van Druten, "I Remember Mama," will be presented Jan. 11 through 14.

Cast will include Marilyn Stanley, Heber, Bryan Restrom, Ogden, Martha Craig, Provo, Sam Melville, Fillmore,

Campus Branches Last Social Event To Climax Activity

The last social event of the Brigham Young University's Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints Campus and North Campus Branches will be held jointly, it was announced today by North Campus Branch President Bernard "Barney" Barnes.

The event, a dance, will be held Saturday evening in the South Posthouse and all members are invited to attend "and join with each other in our last big event," Pres. Barnes urged.

Dress will be "dressed sport and casual" will be by Jerry Hyde and his orchestra.

No charge will be made for the event.

Fall Copies of Wye Available in Center

Copies of the Fall issue of the Wye Magazine may be picked up in the editorial office, room 144, basement of the Student Service Center, according to Miss Elva Christensen, editor. There are only 200 copies of the fall issue available, and they will be issued on a first-come first-served basis.

Deadline for the winter issue of the magazine is February 1. Type of material needed includes regular features of fiction, non-fiction, poetry, art and photography, plus a new opening for humorous verse.

Manuscripts should be unaccompanied by an envelope containing name, address, and phone number of author.

Quarter Locker Rents Due

Physical Plant officials reported Thursday that all Brigham Young University students who rented lockers during fall quarter either return the keys or renew the rental as soon as possible.

blanks will be available in the University office Monday.

Recall Bibler's cartoons each day in the Universe and get acquainted with the characters then nominate students and professors whom you think fit the bill.

OTHER ACTORS in the play are Zora Thacker, Overton, New, Muriel Gale, Chandler, Deerdy Whitaker, Curoville, Elaine Krackos, Springville, David Glendahl, Provo, Jean Warner, Ingwood, Canby, and Neal Bass, Twin Falls, Idaho.

The play is still looking for a cat, according to Dr. Preston B. Glendahl, director. If any student has theatrical ambitions for his pet, the speech department is willing to give the cat a chance.

The cat, known as "Mama Elizabeth" in the play, is supposed to be medium sized and well behaved.

Ariz, Claudia Lamkin, Hayward, Calif.; Joanne Wells, Longdale, Nev.; Charles Whitman, Montclair, Ida; Mary Price, Grapley, Calif.; David Loughney, Blackfoot, Ida; Ed Avery, Grey Bull, Wyo; and Claude Lamkin, North Hollywood, Calif.

The play is adapted from a book, "Mama's Bank Account" by Kathryn Forbes. Some of the stories from the book are currently seen in a television series.

The original production was directed by Richard Rodgers and Oscar Hammerstein II and was a successful Broadway production for many seasons.

Officers, Teachers Hold Last Social

The last get-together as a group for officers and teachers of the North Campus Branch of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints will be a four-side Sunday evening, it was announced by Branch President Bernard "Barney" Barnes.

The friends will be held at the John Smith Ballroom for all officers and teachers and those who have worked in North Campus Branch in any way during the year.

Workers Needed For Banyan Ball

Preparations are beginning for next month's Banyan assembly and students are needed to work on sets, music, programs, or to appear in the program. Margie Egbert, assembly chairman announced.

Interested students should contact the Banyan office immediately, Ext. 384, or come to the office in the basement of the Student Service Center.

igham Cagers Battle Grizzlies Conference Debut at Missoula

By Dave Gordon
University Sports Writer

William Young after a good season, which he will credit to his seven games, eight points and 10 rebounds. In that Missoula against the Grizzlies, Young scored 20 points and 10 rebounds in a 71-60 loss to Utah.

Wednesday night, the Grizzlies met their first opponent, the Grizzlies, and were badly defeated, 71-60.

The 'Eps have a young club and should develop later in the season when their club gets the team had a 5-1 pre-season record, having beaten Idaho, Boise, Washington State, Gonzaga and Whitworth. Whitworth also topped Montana by two points.

Montana's starting five will feature 6-6 Russ Sheriff at center, who has very little experience and may find himself in trouble. Other players are forwards Zip Rhodes and Al Dutton and guards Eddie Atkins, Ed Brown and Bob Powell in Bob Dutton.

For the Cougars, Terry (Shed) Telle is currently holding the cards at a 23 point-a-game clip and must be stopped if the Grizzlies are to make a game of tonight's contest.

Peterson and Ed Pinegar have averaged 13 points per game and Larry Brown and John Benson are not far behind. All four are excellent rebounders.

ZZLY ACE—Rudolph (Zip) Rhodes will carry the brunt of Montana's attack against the Cougars at Missoula tonight. Rhodes, an all-conference performer last year, will have to take the slack caused by center Ray Howard's injury and is a sprained left foot.
